

Rule Amendment Guidance

The following rules were co-produced by the National CLT Network and Anthony Collins Solicitors and have been pre-registered with the FCA.

This means these rules in their current state are compliant with both the Co-operative and Community Benefit Societies Act 2014 and the legal definition of a Community Land Trust.

Required amendments

A few sections of the model rules must be amended with details about your CLT. These amendments are free-of-charge. They are in [square brackets] and highlighted in yellow in the document and are explained below:

Object	Notes
A1	The name of your CLT which must end with Community Land Trust Limited.
A2	Your geographic area of focus. E.g. the London Borough of Camden; parishes of Wealsden and Farnden; the City of Birmingham. It is also acceptable to add 'and surrounding areas/parishes/boroughs' should you wish to broaden the area.
A2.2	This object asks you to repeat your geographic area of focus. Simply repeat the addition from A2.
D5.1	The maximum number of co-optees you would like to set. 5 is the recommended answer as it is large enough to have a strong connection to the organisation the trustees are co-opted from but not so much to overwhelm the whole Board.
F11	The maximum total borrowing for the CLT. £500 million is the recommended maximum.
G1	The registered address will appear publicly on the Mutual Societies Register. It can be changed at any time free-of-charge via the FCAs Mutual Societies Portal. If there is no current registered address, groups often use a steering group member's address or a local charity or business happy to collect post for the group.
G15.8	Repeat the name of the CLT as written in A2

Further amendments

It is possible to amend these rules to make them more bespoke to a particular CLTs activities. If you would like to amend any rules, please note that this will incur an additional fee with the FCA which is detailed here.

There are some objects that it is inadvisable to amend or remove. These are objects that align the rules with either the Co-operative and Community Benefit Societies Act 2014 or with the legal definition of a CLT. This applies to the following objects:

A3; A4; A5; F1-F10; G1; G2; G4-G14;

Other objects are inadvisable to change because they comply with good practice for the issuing of community shares. These objects are:

C2-C6, C38-C51

The rest of the rules are in place to encourage good governance, transparency and flexibility for the CLT in its long-life. It is possible to amend many of them, although it is recommended that complex rule changes may also require legal advice and you will be encouraged to contact a solicitor if this is required.

3. Only shares held by the nominee of an unincorporated body (alone or jointly with other nominees) can be transferred and only to a new nominee of that unincorporated body (alone or jointly with other nominees). All other shares are non-transferable save where expressly provided in rules C52 – C58 (on death of a member and/or bankruptcy and/or mental incapacity).

Transfer of property other than shares on death or bankruptcy of members

5. When a member ceases to be a member or is expelled from the CLT, his or her Membership Share shall be cancelled. The amount paid up on that share shall become the property of the CLT.
6. A member with shares issued pursuant to rule C38 who is expelled from the CLT shall be paid the nominal value of shares held by them at the time of the expulsion unless the right to withdraw shares has been suspended. In these circumstances the nominal value of their share capital shall be converted into loan stock upon such terms as may be agreed between the Board and expelled member, or their personal representative or trustee in bankruptcy provided that such agreement shall require the repayment of the loan within a period not exceeding three years. The Membership Share shall be cancelled in accordance with rule C5.

16. A member may only be expelled by three fourths of the votes cast at a special General Meeting called by the Board.
- 16.1. The Board must give the member at least one month's notice in writing of the General Meeting. The notice to the members must set out the particulars of the complaint of conduct detrimental to the CLT and must request the member to attend the meeting to answer the complaint.
 - 16.2. At the General Meeting called for this purpose the members shall consider the evidence presented by the Board and by the member (if any). The meeting may take place without the attendance of the member.
 - 16.3. If the resolution to expel the member is passed in accordance with this rule, the member shall immediately cease to be a member.
 - 16.4. A member with shares issued pursuant to rule C38 who is expelled from the CLT shall be paid the nominal value of shares held by them at the time of the expulsion unless the right to withdraw shares has been suspended. In these circumstances the nominal value of their share capital shall be converted into loan stock upon such terms as may be agreed between the Board and expelled member, or their personal representative, or trustee in bankruptcy provided that such agreement shall require the repayment of the loan within a period not exceeding three years. The Membership Share shall be cancelled in accordance with rule C5

Annual General Meeting

- 17. The CLT shall hold a General called the annual General Meeting within six calendar months after the close of each of its financial years or such later date as may be permitted by law.
- 18. The functions of the annual General Meeting shall be:
 - 18.1. to receive the annual report which shall contain:
 - 18.1.1. the revenue accounts and balance sheets for the last accounting period;
 - 18.1.2. the auditor's report (if one is required by law) on those accounts and balance sheets;
 - 18.1.3. the Board's report on the affairs of the CLT;

- 18.4. to transact any other general business of the CLT set out in the notice convening the meeting including any business that requires a special resolution.

Special General Meetings

19. All General Meetings other than annual General Meetings shall be special General Meetings and shall be convened either:
 - 19.1. upon an order of the Board; or
 - 19.2. upon a written requisition signed by one-tenth of the members (to a maximum of twenty-five but not less than three) stating the business for which the meeting is to be convened; or
 - 19.3. if within twenty-eight days after delivery of a requisition to the secretary a meeting is not convened, the members who have signed the requisition may convene a meeting.
20. A special General Meeting shall not transact any business that is not set out in the notice convening the meeting.

Calling a General Meeting

21. All General Meetings shall be convened by at least fourteen clear days' written notice posted or delivered or sent by fax or Electronic Communication to every member at the address, fax number or Electronic Communication address given in the Register of Members. The notice shall state whether the meeting is an annual General Meeting or special General Meeting, the time, date and place of the meeting, and the business for which it is convened.
22. Any accidental failure to get any notice to any member shall not invalidate the proceedings at that General Meeting. A notice or communication sent by post to a member at their address shown in the Register of Members shall be deemed to have arrived two days after being posted and any sent by fax or Electronic Communication shall be deemed to have been served when received provided that in respect of a fax it is legible and in respect of an Electronic Communication, it is in a readable form.
23. Seventy-five per cent of members may agree, by consenting in writing, or by Electronic Communication, to a General Meeting being held with less notice than required by rule C21.

Proceedings at General Meetings

24. Before any General Meeting can start its business there must be a quorum present. A quorum is one-tenth of all members, with a minimum number of five and a maximum number of 25. As part of the quorum at least two members must be present in person.
25. A meeting held as a result of a member's requisition will be dissolved if too few members are present half an hour after the meeting is scheduled to begin.
26. All other General Meetings with too few members will be adjourned to the same day, at the same time and at the registered office in the following week. If less than the number of members set out in rule C24 are present within half an hour of the time the adjourned meeting is scheduled to have started, those members present shall carry out the business of the meeting.
27. The chair of any General Meeting can:

- 27.1. take the business of the meeting in any order that the chair may decide; and
 - 27.2. adjourn the meeting if the majority of the members present in person or by proxy agree. An adjourned meeting can only deal with matters adjourned from the original meeting. An adjourned meeting is a continuation of the original meeting. The date of all resolutions passed is the date they were passed (as opposed to the date of the original meeting). There is no need to give notice of an adjournment or to give notice of the business to be transacted.
28. At all General Meetings of the CLT, the chair of the Board shall preside. If there is no such chair or if the chair is not present or is unwilling to act, the vice chair (if any) shall chair the meeting, failing which the members present shall elect a member to chair the meeting. The person elected shall be a member of the Board if one is present and willing to act.

Proxies

29. Any member entitled to attend and vote at a General Meeting may appoint another person, whether or not a member, as their proxy to attend and vote on their behalf. A proxy can be appointed by delivering a written appointment which may be electronic, to the registered office, or such other place as may be selected by the Board and stated in the meeting notice, at least two days before the date of the meeting at which the proxy is authorised to vote. It must be signed or approved and sent by the member or a duly authorised attorney. Any proxy form delivered late shall be invalid. Any question as to the validity of a proxy shall be determined by the chair of the meeting whose decision shall be final.

Voting

30. Subject to the provisions of these rules or of any statute, a resolution put to the vote at a General Meeting shall, except where a ballot is demanded or directed, be decided upon a show of hands.
31. On a show of hands every member present in person and on a ballot every member present in person or by proxy shall have one vote. In the case of an equality of votes the chair of the meeting shall have a second or casting vote.
32. Unless a ballot is demanded (either before or immediately after the vote), a declaration by the chair that a resolution on a show of hands has been carried or lost, unanimously or by a particular majority, is conclusive. An entry made to that effect in the book containing the minutes of the proceedings of the CLT shall be conclusive evidence of that fact.
33. Any question as to the acceptability of any vote whether tendered personally or by proxy, shall be determined by the chair of the meeting, whose decision shall be final.
34. A ballot on a resolution may be demanded by any three members at a meeting (in person or by proxy) or directed by the chair (and such demand or direction may be withdrawn). A ballot may be demanded or directed after a vote on the show of hands, and in that case the resolution shall be decided by the ballot.
35. A ballot shall be taken at such time and in such manner as the chair shall direct. The result of such a ballot shall be deemed to be the resolution of the CLT in General Meeting.

36. Subject to the Act a resolution in writing signed or approved by letter, fax or by Electronic Communication by or on behalf of the requisite majority of the members, for the time being, entitled to vote on the relevant resolution shall be as valid and effective as a resolution passed at a properly called and constituted meeting of members provided that a copy of the proposed resolution has been delivered in accordance with these rules to all members and the requisite majority of members referred to in rule C37 have delivered their agreement in accordance with these rules. Such resolution when signed or approved may comprise more than one document in the same form, each signed or approved, by one or more members.
37. For the purposes of rule C36 the requisite majorities are:
- 37.1. in the case of an ordinary resolution, a simple majority of members who would have been entitled to vote had the resolution been proposed at a properly called and constituted General Meeting;
- 37.2. in the case of a resolution requiring a two-thirds majority of members, at least two-thirds of the members who would have been entitled to vote had the resolution been proposed at a properly called and constituted General Meeting; or
- 37.3. in the case of a resolution requiring a three-quarters majority of members, at least three-quarters of the members who would have been entitled to vote had the resolution been proposed at a properly called and constituted General Meeting.

Share Issues

38. From time to time the Board may determine to issue shares for the purpose of raising funds. Applicants for such shares shall become members of the CLT and one share shall be designated as the Membership Share and is non-withdrawable.
39. The Board shall set the terms on which the shares under rule C38 may be issued having taken appropriate advice from suitably qualified persons where the Board lacks the expertise within it. All such share offers must be set out in the form of an offer document clearly setting out (amongst other things) the terms on which applicants are invited to purchase shares and the effect of these rules.
40. All shares may be held jointly. The CLT will send correspondence, notices and the share certificate only to the first person named in CLT's Register of Members, unless that person gives the CLT different written instructions.
41. Shares cannot be sold or transferred to any other person save where expressly provided in the rules.

Payment of interest on shares and ability to suspend interest payments

42. Where the Board determines that interest may be paid on shares issued as part of raising funding (other than the Membership Share), the availability, rate and offer of interest will be subject to the following requirements:
- 42.1. the interest rate must not be set at a level which is in itself a motivation to buy shares;
- 42.2. the Board must satisfy itself that the payment of interest is in the interest of the CLT by reference to available commercial rates for borrowing;
- 42.3. the cost of paying interest is part of the CLT's revenue expenses and met before surplus is determined;

- 42.4. the interest rates are declared in advance (not retrospectively) of the period for which they will become payable; and
- 42.5. interest payments may be suspended in the interests of the CLT, but only where appropriate financial advice has been taken and having obtained a financial report from a suitably qualified accountant or auditor.

Ending of a shareholding

- 43. Subject to rule C5 and rules C46 to C51 a member may withdraw their shares. In the case of joint members all of them must sign an application to withdraw the shares unless the CLT has previously received written notification of a different arrangement.
- 44. Subject to rules C45 and C46 – C51 a member may withdraw all their shares and end their shareholding. On withdrawal of all of a member's shares the CLT will pay all of the money paid for the shares, and interest due.
- 45. A member's right to withdraw their share(s) and be paid interest may be suspended in whole or in part by the CLT in accordance with rules C46-C51. Any balance due on withdrawing the shares must be paid up to the CLT upon withdrawal.

Terms and method of withdrawal of shares

- 46. The Board will set the terms of the notice period for withdrawal but where no notice period has been given it shall be 180 days subject to rules C47 to C49. Rule C5 applies to the Membership Share.
- 47. A withdrawal notice can be served on or any time after the third anniversary of the shares being issued or such other period as the Board sets at the time of issue.
- 48. All withdrawals shall be in the order in which the notices are received by the CLT.
- 49. When members apply to withdraw their shares they will need to:
 - 49.1. complete a withdrawal notice (as set out by the CLT Board);
 - 49.2. comply with any procedures the CLT's Board may set; and
 - 49.3. produce evidence of identity.

Reduction in value of shares and/or suspension of right of withdrawal

- 50. The CLT may reduce the value of the shares and write the value down to below the nominal value of £1.
- 51. In C50 this shall be determined by the Board after having taken appropriate financial advice and having obtained a financial report from a suitably qualified accountant or auditors.

Death of a member

- 52. On the death of a member holding a share in their own name but not exceeding the value of £5,000, the CLT will do one of the following:
 - 52.1. transfer the shares to the registered nominee; or
 - 52.2. in the absence of a registered nominee, transfer the shares to a personal representative who has proof of the grant of probate or letters of administration; or
 - 52.3. in the absence of a registered nominee or personal representative as described in C52.1 and C52.2 above, the CLT may transfer the shares to the person who seems to the CLT (acting in its absolute discretion) to have a legal right to the shares and on production of evidence of identity.

53. The guardian/trustee cannot exercise any other shareholding rights for those shares. This rule does not apply to the Membership Share.
58. Where the CLT receives a written opinion from a registered medical practitioner who is treating that person stating that the person has become mentally incapable of exercising their rights as a joint member and/or written proof that a joint member is bankrupt, the CLT will substitute the interest of the guardian/trustee of their estate for the name of that joint member and substitute the guardian/trustee as the last named person of the joint holders of that share. The CLT will automatically cancel any written instructions that vary.

Each successful candidate shall become a Board Member and serve for a term of three years, expiring at the annual General Meeting in their third year of office.
- 7.3. At every annual General Meeting each Board Member who has served their fixed term shall retire from office. Any Board Member who retires from office at an annual General Meeting under this rule D7 shall be eligible for re-election subject to any restrictions contained in these rules.
